On a mention being made, the case is taken up.

Shri P. Diwari, Counsel for the petitioner.

Shri Akhil Agrawal, Panel Lawyer for the State.

Application for urgent hearing is allowed.

Heard on I.A.No.6925/2004 for amendment.

Not opposed.

The application is allowed. Necessary amendment be incorporated.

Heard.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the matter relates to transfer of the petitioner. He further submits that two transfer orders have been issued in respect of the petitioner. It is stated that in order No.284 dated 13-8-04 the petitioner's name is shown at S.No.18 whereas in order No.288 dated 13-8-04 his name finds place at S.No.16. He also submits that for the present the petitioner may be given an opportunity of filing the detailed representation before the competent authority of the respondents, which shall be considered on its own merits in accordance with law.

Having considered and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, in the opinion of this Court, ends of justice will be served if a direction is given to the petitioner to make a detailed representation raising his grievances before the competent authority of the respondents along with a copy of the petition and this order, within 10 days, and on such representation being filed, the competent authority of the respondents shall decide the same on its own merits in accordance with law as early as possible preferably within six weeks from the date of receipt of the representation. Meanwhile, the petitioner, if already not relieved, may be allowed to continue in the present place of posting till consideration of the representation.

It is made clear that if any grievance still remains, the petitioner may avail the remedy available under the law.

With the aforesaid observations, this petition stands disposed of.

Consequently M.W.P.No.2761/2004 also stands disposed of.

Certified copy be supplied after amendment.
